

The Pterosaur Database

Pterodaustro guinazui

Specimen from the Lagarcito Formation, San Luis, Argentina. The specimen found in 1970, is near complete and disarticulated on a slab.

Holotype: PLV 2571
right humerus 80 mm long, (Bonaparte 1970).
Institute Miguel Lillo, Univ. Nac. Tucuman, Argentina.

Four other associated specimens are known.

Bonaparte J. F., 1970, Pterodaustro guinazui gen.et sp.nov.. Pterosaurio de la formacion Lagarcito, Provincia de San Luis, Argentina, Acta Geologica Lilloana, 10(10):207-226

Bonaparte J. F., 1971, Descripcion del craneo y mandibulas de Pterodaustro guinazi (Pterodactyloidea - Pterodaustriidae), de la Formacion Lagarcito, San Luis, Argentina, Publ. Mus. Mun. Cienc. Nat. Mar del Plata, Pp. 263-272

Codorniu L. and Chiappe L. M., 2004, Early juvenile pterosaurs (Pterodactyloides: Pterodaustro guinazui) from the Lower Cretaceous of Central Argentina. Can. J. Earth Sci./Rev. Can. Sci. Terre 41(1): 9-18