

Un-named Azhdarchid

A previously unknown species of Azhdarchid pterosaur from Solnhofen, showing a complete post-cranial skeleton. A displaced cervical vertebra at the end of the spinal column suggests that the head was removed post-mortem. The matrix where the skull would have been shows scale like particles which can be seen under UV light.

No image

Frey E. and Mayer C. A., 2005, Unusual preservation of a new pterosaur from Solnhofen. Presentation. 1st meeting of the EAVP, Natural History Museum, Basel, 15-19 July 2005.