

The Pterosaur Database

Kepodactylus insperatus

Fragmentary crushed remains of a large pterosaur from the Kimmeridgian/Tithonian boundary in Colorado, USA. The left humerus and some wing bone fragments and a cervical vertebra were found in association.

No image

Harris J. D. and Carpenter K., 1996, A large pterodactyloid from the Morrison Formation (Late Jurassic) of Garden Park, Colorado. N. Jb. Geol. Palaont. Mh. H.8, 473-484.